

Fiction for Early Readers (Grades 1 – 3)

Key: E = Early Reader; C = Chapter Book; G = Graphic Novel; 1 = 1st in a Series

Parents, please read to or with your children every day! And please, please, please take them to the public library regularly. Reading is the essential skill for success in school and beyond, and there is no better place to foster a love of reading than the public library. While there, you can look for the books listed below, or just let your children browse. You may also want to bookmark our Symbaloo page on your computer, as it has a number of links to websites that are chock full of ebooks. Finally, students should begin keeping reading logs for everything they read – or listen to – and turn them in to their teachers. The reading log form can be accessed here or through the link on the Library Resources page under Important Links for Readers.
